illogiCon, or what it takes to get it started

Ever wonder what it takes to get your own convention off the ground and running? Interested in a new sci-fi convention coming to Raleigh? Well, we'll tell you about both! Come chat with the illogiCon staff and learn about illogiCon and the special brand of insanity required to start your own convention.

KeroKeroKero!

Welcome to the Keroro Platoon. Christina Moss shares everything you ever wanted to know and more about the Platoon that invaded Pekopon and captured the hearts of otaku all over the world. Learn about their impact in Japan, and just what makes these frog like aliens so loveable. After this, you'll be ready when your house is invaded by Sgt. Frog.

Origami: Action and Art

By Missy Lang/Assistant Youth Services Coordinator, CCPL & IC.

Join Missy for a closer look at some of the more advanced folding techniques and check out what resources are available for folders who like their origami to be attractive and active. Space is limited and on site registration is first-come, first-serve.

Paragraph 3 Workshop: The Blank Canvas and the Sweep of the Pen

By Missy Lang/Assistant Youth Services Coordinator, CCPL & IC.

Whether you're creating the next best-selling manga or sharing fan fiction with your friends, get tips and advice to improve your writing and style. Missy presents books and online resources for authors and artists who are just starting out or who want to take their craft to the next level, including how to search for publishing opportunities.

Photoshop Basics

Jonathan Chestnut and Rollinda Thomas from UNC-FSU: Basic Photoshop skills covered from photomanipulation to comic page coloring.

So You Wanna CosPlay?

Kat "Tigress" Ingersoll, semi-professional costumer and owner of Kat's Play, gives tips & tricks on sewing, cosplay and other things unrelated to reality.
